The mpls downtown council today submitted a statement in support of the appointment of Interim Minneapolis Police Chief Medaria Arradondo. Below is a statement from mpls downtown council president & ceo Steve Cramer:

“Chief Arradondo is a proven leader who has earned respect within and outside the department. For our downtown constituency, ‘Rondo’s’ time as First Precinct Inspector demonstrated his ability to interact with a broad and diverse group of stakeholders in a way that inspired confidence in the MPD. This ability to inspire confidence in word and more importantly follow-up deed is a critical quality for the Chief of Police to possess at this moment in our City.”
