

mobility

Minneapolis and mobility go hand-in-hand. From light rail to commuter rail to buses, there are endless ways to get to, from and around downtown.

- Downtown Minneapolis workers, visitors and residents have access to mobility options including two rail lines that service more than 40 stations, the North Star Commuter rail, affordable bus rides at 50 cents in the downtown zone or free rides along Nicollet, 16 parking ramps and metered curbside spaces, car sharing, bike lanes and trails.
- New route: Orange Line Bus Rapid Transit on 35W from Burnsville to downtown.
- MnDOT wrapped up the four-year 35W at 94 project. It features the new Lake Street transit station.
- MPLS Parking: flexible and affordable parking method with added value; card members will receive discounts from participating merchants just by showing their Reloadable Parking Card ($6 per visit). mplsarking.com/rpc/
- Carpoolers save on gas and use the MnPass lanes on I-394, I-35W and I-35E for free. With the MPLS parking carpool matching system, finding a carpool partner is easier than ever. mplsarking.com/services/carpool/
- Metro Transit will partner with your company to create a customized package of transportation benefits. Once you have a plan, Metro Transit will work with you to implement and promote your programs for maximum results. When you're ready to learn more, contact Commuter Programs at tenille.warren@metrotransit.org
- Use the Metro Transit app: metrotransit.org/app

- Other Metro Transit options include:
 - Transit pass programs including Metropass and Go-To Cards
 - Free ride matching to help connect employees with others who want to carpool
 - Guaranteed Ride Home, which ensures commuters have a ride home if they have a family emergency, personal illness, or need to work late unexpectedly
 - Preferred or discount parking program set up for employees who share the ride to work
 - Telework program guidance
- Southwest Transit buses connect Downtown Minneapolis with Park and Ride in Eden Prairie, Chanhassen, Chaska and Carver: swtransit.org

Downtown Tours

With so much to see and do in the downtown area, a tour is one of the best ways to easily take in all the fantastic sights and experiences downtown has to offer. Whether you're a sports fanatic or an outdoor adventurer, there's a downtown tour for you.
